How come you are still considering a native version of Shogo when you recently ruled out Heretic 2 as being too old.

Out of curiosity, which games will we see in the future. Wasn't Sin completed for WarpOS years ago and what are we likely to see come out of the Inca Gold deal.

Is work going on with the "inspiring" secret title.

Am I right in thinking that the Worms Armageddon licence is not valid for OS4, does that mean Hyperion lost money on that one.

I look forward to seeing/playing what you do next.
