Hmmm ... 'read-me' file says different, but it doesn't look like Mason's work to me.

The 'read-me' allways tells the truth! (see details in PM)

But maybe we see the first incarnation of a future AmigaOS4.2 design evolution (i.e. the drawer icon base is different to the current one...)

Totally correct! After I get aware that I am not a real (icon) God, I have to use an evolutionary process to do the icons. (Stone him!) Meanwhile the final design is finished and it looks slightly different.

It's an unhappy drawer rather than a happy drawer

No need to panic! The new drawers will smile again!
