At <https://aiostreams.amiga-projects.net/> you can now discover interesting streams from Mixer.com, as I added dedicated pages for that network. You can see the current featured streams, as long as a top of 51 streams.

There are more pages in the working queue, which you can see at

<https://github.com/walkero-gr/aiostreams/projects/2>

Feel free to give me your feedback and your proposals.
