I didn't know you were active in the demo scene.

Yes, this is a period I call "my first Amiga life" 😊 But the demoscene in the Czech Republic wasn't very vibrant, and I lost interest towards the end of the 90s. When I jumped on the AmigaOS4 bandwagon in 2009 I didn't continue writing music but, instead, rekindled my interest in application programming - something I find much more enjoyable on OS4 compared to the Classic.
