LOL! Yes, I can't think of single person who feels like an Amiga is their "go to" system for gaming. Most computers users these days don't even know what an Amiga is. Funny story is that my ex-wife assumed that I had a Spanish girlfriend because I used to spend so much time over at Amiga.org and other Amiga web sites. Even after I showed her that they were computer sites and not online dating sites, she didn't believe me....hence the reason she's my EX-wife!
