Imho will be cool to have just marking any song by mouse (and with shift too, to mark not only one song), or just mark by mouse plainly all the songs (like press on one, and move down), and then just press delete on keyboard :) Imho easy and logical. If i remember right, i write the same already to Bean's mail, and he say that will have a look at this later. Dunno will be it avail in the upcoming version or not. Bean ?:)
