PayPal can do that for sure. And do it many times in different places of world. They so annoy by fraud back in times (and i think even for now too), that very possible that they will just say nothing for us, and account will die (the worst scenario, but still very possible).

As i understand, amigabounty just use account without any docs before ? I.e. just register and use, without any pasport ID or kind ?

Not want to rush the fan, but the worst scenario here are pretty possible (let's hope that everything will be ok anyway).
