We have all had 'those' Mondays. YUK!

Going on to part 2, a ray of sunshine. If you haven't listened to Aeon Starlight by Rayne then perhaps now is a good time to do so. It's in the System > Media drawer.

Part 3 is just way cool. Gotta get me.....another card ASAP.

I haven't had X1000 very long, but since getting it there has been what seems like a growing river of new. The only frustration has been finding the time to play with and investigate each piece in detail, meanwhile realizing there is more to come.

I am oh so glad I invested.....my wife ??????? maybe not so much. Oh well, she must get her share of those Mondays too. 😊
