i dont know , but 360p video become more fluid and enjoyable im using spoof as Firefox 3.6 windows

this is the video:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dxytyRy-O1k>

i had a dsi after the "spot" before this video too.

edit: on morphos everything is ok ... 360p i have the same performances of amigaOs4 version.

ah i forget i dont know why on amigaos side owb dont load some graphic part and preview of youtube.
